

COSSACKS ARE CUTTING TEUTON COMMUNICATIONS

Russian Horsemen Have Swung Around Von Bothmer and Gained his Rear

MUSCOVITE DRIVE HAS ATTAINED SUCH MOMENTUM IT THREATENS TO WRECK ENTIRE TEUTON LINE SOUTH OF THE PINK MARSHES

(Associated Press)

London, August 1.—Gen. Bothmer's army is reported to have been almost enveloped by the Russians in Galicia, according to a wireless press dispatch from Rome. Cossack divisions have cut the railroads behind the Austrians after Brody was captured. The Germans are withdrawing from Kovel their heavy artillery, food and munitions depots.

A Central News dispatch says one of the Zeppelins which raided the English coast last night is believed to have been badly damaged.

TEUTON LINES TREMBLE

The Russian drive is attaining such momentum that it is threatening to wreck the entire Teutonic defensive line south of the Pink marshes, according to unofficial reports from Rome.

Petrograd dispatches credit the Russians with crossing the river Stokhod and it is unofficially reported the Teutons are moving their supplies from Kovel and even Lemberg. Petrograd officials report Teutonic counter attacks repulsed.

British and French both officially say German attacks in the Somme region last night were repulsed.

Berlin dispatches express confidence that the Teutonic resistance in the Kovel region will withstand the Russian pressure. The new front to which the Austro-German forces have been withdrawn is shorter than the old one.

NOBODY HIT

London, Aug. 1.—It is officially announced there were no casualties from last night's air raid.

WEARING THEMSELVES OUT

Berlin, Aug. 1.—It is officially announced that the Germans drove the British out of the Fouraux wood in the Somme region.

The Russians are exhausting themselves in fruitless attacks in the east, the report says.

Poland, Says Germany, Will Not Need Aid in Obtaining Provisions

(Associated Press)

Washington, Aug. 1.—Germany has informed the United States that on account of "impracticable conditions" imposed by England upon the shipment of food from America into Poland, further negotiations for co-operation in Polish relief work would be devoid of purpose. The people of Poland won't need relief after Oct. 1, says Germany.

GRINGOES AND GREASERS

Battled Side by Side Near Fort Hancock Against a Bunch of Bandits

(Associated Press)

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 1.—United States and Carranza troops fought side by side against Mexican bandits south of Fort Hancock, Texas, yesterday, according to a report from General Bell to General Funston.

After the bandits had been surrounded in a ranch house on the American side, and an American custom guard had been killed, another customs guard called the Carranza soldiers across the line to assist the American troops. Nine Carranza cavalrymen joined in the fight on the American side. The bandits then fled, leaving four dead. The Americans dead were two privates, John Twoner of the Eighth Cavalry, and Robert Wood a customs guard. Sergeant Lewis of the Eighth Cavalry was seriously wounded.

The report did not say how the fighting begun, but it is believed the bandits were trying to escape from the Carranza troops. The American force consisted of thirteen men.

BANDITS IN A BAD BOX

El Paso, Aug. 1.—Three of the same bandits in the Fort Hancock fight yesterday were captured by Carranza troops two days ago, it became known today. They are in the Juarez jail and it is expected they will be executed.

PREVIOUS RECORDS OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Exceeded this Morning in New York by Death of Fifty-Seven Children in Twenty-four Hours

(Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 1.—Previous mortality records during the epidemic of infantile paralysis were broken for the twenty-four hours ending at ten o'clock this morning with fifty-seven deaths among the children of Greater New York. There were 150 new cases reported. The increase is attributed to a heat wave.

MAKING PICTURES FOR COLORED PEOPLE

Dr. Thos. H. B. Walker is in town, making motion pictures of colored people and their enterprises, which pictures will be shown at the Metropolitan theater in a few days. Dr. Walker travels all over the United States, making and showing pictures, illustrating the colored race and their achievements in the South. His studio is in Jacksonville, where the films are developed. Among the other things pictured in the city will be the Ocala Knitting Mill, showing the machinery in operation and the people at work inside.

FIRST LOT OF COTTON

P. H. Felder, a colored farmer living a few miles west of town, brought to George Giles & Co., the cotton buyers and ginner today the first cotton of the season. The cotton is fine and Felder has much more to follow.

George Giles says there is fifteen times as much cotton in Marion county this year as last, and it is going to bring the best price it has brought in many years.

If the farmers of Marion county would each put in an acreage of cotton equal to their means and ability each year, they would profit by the cultivation and always have some ready cash.

CURE FOR CHOLERA MORBUS

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. ALLIED CRUISERS ON THE OUTLOOK

BECAME IMMEDIATELY AWARE OF EXPECTED ARRIVAL AT NORFOLK OF THE BREMEN

(Associated Press)

Norfolk, Aug. 1.—An insistent report that the submarine Bremen would probably arrive off the capes this morning caused much excitement, but the vessel hasn't appeared. It was said here the report reached the allied warships patrolling the coast and they increased their activity.

MAY LEAVE ANY MINUTE

Baltimore, Aug. 1.—It was known the Deutschland expected to leave at high tide this morning, but the tide was not as high as expected and the submarine did not leave. The next high tide is between 9 and 9 o'clock tonight.

The water near the submersible was dragged this morning to remove any obstruction naturally there or which might have been placed in the water to obstruct the boat. A weighted rope between two boats was drawn through the water.

DEUTSCHLAND ABOUT TO DIVE

Baltimore, Aug. 1.—All arrangements have been made, it was said by an official of the company operating the Deutschland for the submarine to leave this afternoon or evening.

RICHARD D. HARRISON

Marion county lost another good old citizen, when Captain Richard D. Harrison died early this morning at the home of Mr. Vance Weathers at York, at the age of about 75 years. Captain Harrison lived at Orange Springs before the war between the states, in which he fought as a soldier in the Confederate army. After the war he made his home at York, where he had since lived. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Vance Weathers of York, Mrs. Elmore Davidson of Leesburg, and Mrs. J. Roy George, and a son, Jack Harrison.

Captain Harrison's remains, accompanied by a number of relatives and friends, were taken to Leesburg this afternoon and laid to rest in Lone Oak cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS THANK THEIR FRIENDS

The scholars of the Ocala high school, who have after a hard fight won a handsome addition to their library, request the Star to thank for them the loyal friends who aided so efficiently in winning the prize. The school boys and girls hadn't so many votes themselves, but they had a mighty strong pull on the people who had, and they pulled all together and won. The school children are a mighty element in Ocala, and can accomplish almost any work they set out to do.

Manager E. C. Bennett of the Temple theater announces that beginning at once admission to all moving picture performances at the theater will be 5 and 10 cents. Up to this time the night prices for Paramount pictures have been 10 and 20 cents. Mr. Bennett also expects to have 11-day Paramount pictures very shortly. That is, the patrons of the Temple will see the Paramount pictures just 11 days after they are first released.

BIG FORCE GATHERED AROUND BROWNSVILLE

Army the Largest in America Since the Civil War Ended

Brownsville, Texas, July 31.—From Point Isabel on the Gulf of Mexico to Fort Ringgold at Rio Grande City, which marks the western terminus of the Brownsville district, stretches in an almost unbroken line of khaki a "thin drab line of heroes," as Kipling might have said. It is the largest single army brought together under the American flag since the civil war—by far the largest of the many concentration districts on the Mexican border in the lower Rio Grand valley, where almost 50,000 soldiers are stationed. They are made up about as follows:

Regulars, 5300; New York troops, 14,000; Texas, 2800; Illinois, 1300; Virginia, 2400; Minnesota, 4000; Indiana, 6000; Nebraska, 3700; South Dakota, 1200; North Dakota, 1000; Louisiana, 2500; Oklahoma, 2200; Iowa, 2500; a total of nearly 50,000. When the newly organized Thirty-sixth Infantry and Seventeenth Cavalry get under canvas at Brownsville that number will be exceeded.

There will be then in the district an army in the full military sense of the word, or approximately one and two-thirds army corps. An army corps is two divisions plus.

Personnel of Commanders

The divisions are the Brownsville division, comprising the regulars, Texas troops, First Illinois Cavalry, Virginia Infantry and Iowa Infantry, which is commanded by Brigadier-General James Parker at Fort Brown, Brownsville; the Llano Grande division, comprising the state troops from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Indiana and Nebraska, which is commanded by Brigadier-General George Plummer; the New York division, comprising all the New York infantry, cavalry, artillery and engineers, which is commanded by Gen. O'Ryan, and the nucleus of another division, headquarters of which most likely will be at Rio Grande City, and the commander of which has not been named.

ISN'T PLEASED WITH WILSON AT ALL

Candidate Hughes Hands Out Caustic Criticism

(Associated Press)

IN ACCEPTING REPUBLICAN NOMINATION, HE GIVES NO CREDIT TO ADMINISTRATION OF HIS OPPONENT

New York, Aug. 1.—Charles E. Hughes last night outlined in his speech of acceptance of the republican nomination the issues upon which he will conduct his campaign for the presidency. He assailed the administration for the course it has pursued with reference to Mexico, preparedness and other great questions of the day. He declared for a policy of "firmness and consistency" toward Mexico, for the "unflinching maintenance of all American rights on land and sea," and for "adequate national defense; adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts."

"We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation," Mr. Hughes said. "Utterly intolerable is the use of our soil for alien intrigues. Every American must unreservedly condemn them and support every effort for their suppression."

"I endorse the declaration in the platform in favor of woman suffrage," Mr. Hughes declared. And he added: "Opposition may delay, but in my judgment cannot defeat this movement. I favor the vote for women."

One-fourth of the speech was devoted to Mexico. Step after step taken by the administration with reference to Mexico was assailed from the days of Huerta to the note sent the de facto government by the state department June 20, last.

"The seizure of Vera Cruz," the nominee said, "was war, of course. Later we retired from Vera Cruz," he continued, "giving up this noble warfare. We are now informed that we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag. We are told that he went there to show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go."

America, Mr. Hughes continued, had no policy of aggression toward Mexico, no desire for any part of her territory; but wishes her to have peace, stability and prosperity.

"The conduct of the administration has created difficulties we shall have to surmount," he said. "We demand from Mexico, the protection of the lives and property of our citizens, and the security of our border from depredations."

The safeguarding American rights abroad had not been accomplished, Mr. Hughes said, by the administration. There had been "brave words in a series of notes," but "what does it avail to use some of the strongest words known to diplomacy if ambassadors can receive the impression that the words are not to be taken seriously?"

The nominee reiterated his declaration that had this government left no doubt that it meant to hold Germany to "strict accountability" there would have been no loss of life on the Lusitania.

Discussing preparedness, Mr. Hughes said it was apparent that the United States was "shockingly unprepared."

"The administration has failed to discharge its responsibilities," Mr. Hughes declared. "Apparently it now is seeking to meet political exigencies by its naval program. But it has imposed on the country an incompetent naval administration. We demand adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service. It seems to me plain that our regular army is too small. We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service into which they are now called."

Of the present prosperity Mr. Hughes said: "We are living in a fool's paradise." It is, he said, a prosperity brought about by the abnormal conditions of war. For the protection of the industries and working men of the United States against the compe-

STATE GUARDSMEN IN THE STRUGGLE

Made to Check the Forest Fires that are Devastating Lower Michigan

SNEAK THIEF ESCAPED THRU RAIN OF SHOT

Messrs. Hayes Guynn the North Magnolia street merchants have been missing goods from their store at different times lately, but only found out last night just the route being employed in getting away with them.

Early Monday morning when Mr. Guynn opened up he noticed that a number of articles were missing, and a search inside and outside the place revealed the hiding place of a generously filled suit case under the rear platform. He pulled it out and removing its contents returned it to its hiding place. He then notified an officer who watched all day, without results. Just after dark last evening, while Deputy Osteen was watching for the return of the thief, a colored boy came into the alley way and made his way directly to the hiding place of the suit case. He secured it and had started to leave when the officer called for him to halt, but he couldn't see it that way and started to run. Mr. Osteen then fired two barrels of a shot gun at him, but this only frightened him into greater speed. The officer then gave chase toward the vacant lots on North Orange street, where the thief succeeded in dodging him, and finally made his escape westward on Oklawaha avenue, after six shots had been fired at him by the pursuing deputy.

The burglar had been crawling between the iron bars on the back window which allow only room enough for a small man's body to pass through.

The Sunday night haul promised to be a valuable one as over fifty dollars worth of goods, besides the suit case had been scheduled for removal on Monday night.

The shooting caused considerable excitement for a time, some believing that a company of Carranza's soldiers had invaded our usually peaceful city.

tion of "an energized Europe, it is plain we must have protective, up-building policies." Other measures, too, should be applied, he said, notably the upbuilding of a merchant marine.

To make peace lasting and effective when the present war shall end, Mr. Hughes advocated the formation of an international tribunal to dispose of controversy of a justiciable court, backed by the co-operation of the nations.

Mr. Hughes also declared for the "conservation of the just interests of labor," for conservation of national resources and for a national budget.

"Our opponents promise economy, but they have shown a reckless extravagance. It is time we had fiscal reform," he said.

Mr. Hughes closed with an endorsement of the republican platform and a formal acceptance of the nomination.
